WHO WE ARE

The Pink Boots Society is the fundamental, leading resource for women beer professionals.
We are a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that assists, inspires and encourages women beer industry professionals to pursue their passions through furthering their education and advancing their careers.

Our organization focuses on building community and breaking down barriers for women who work in the beer industry. We encourage collaboration, inclusion, and resource-building. We work with our community partners to create scholarships every year that enable our members to follow their passions.

By providing educational opportunities that allow our members to pursue a career they're passionate about, the Pink Boots Society supports women in their goals to gain knowledge and skills that drive innovation across our industry.

WHERE WE'RE HEADED

The Pink Boots Society was formed in 2007 to connect the few women across the globe who worked in the brewing industry – and find women working in the industry that the founding members didn't know existed

2008

In the Spring of 2008, our organization held its first meeting at the Craft Brewers Conference in San Diego, California, U.S.A.

2011

The Pink Boots Society applied for 501(c)(3) non-profit status and this status was granted in 2013

2019

Established programs and collaborations with industry leading partners that have given our members educational opportunities to develop their skills and allowed us to continue to support our mission on a much larger scale

2020

We've grown exponentially with more than 2,000 members (all women)

We're led by an all-woman executive director team

We support women professionals who work in every aspect of the brewing industry
